

HIGHER EDUCATION FORUM

Tuesday 9th MARCH 4.30p.m. – 8.00p.m.

This event is for all the J6 and their parents. There are speakers from Queen Mary College, University of London, Oxford University and Churchill College Cambridge and they will deal with choice of university/course, completion of UCAS form, choosing a course/college at Oxbridge etc. The first part of the evening 4.30p.m. – 5.30p.m. will deal with general matters; there will then be a break for refreshments and discussions with tutors. The Oxbridge session commences at 6.00p.m. in the Great Hall. Attendance is compulsory for all J6.

J6 HOW TO RESEARCH HE & UNIVERSITY COURSES

Every J6 tutor group is allocated a session with a Careers Adviser to show them how to navigate their way through the plethora of literature/websites now available on Higher Education/University. Please ensure that you attend your session and arrive promptly, - the correct choice of university/course is very important and you must take this matter seriously. The CLS guide to HE Resources will be distributed at these sessions. All sessions are at 1.10pm on Tuesdays or Thursdays in the Careers Centre. Date/tutor groups for this term are given below.
